Program Services

Achievement	Pgm. Svc. Exp.
Partnerships in Education Programs: We purchased items directly for use by the teachers in the schools to enhance the educational program of our school. This included technology and equipment for the PE department (elevate physical standard), chess materials for the Gifted program (elevate intellectual standard), extra clothes for the nurse (promote health and welfare), and music stands for the music department (elevate intellectual standard). We purchased refreshments for the Reading Night sponsored by the school (elevate intellectual standard & encourage cooperation). Throughout the year, we organized 3 community activities for our students and staff and their families (winter wonderland, spaghetti dinner and spring carnival), which helped promote a closer relationship between home and school and elevated the social education of the students. We held a Silent Auction to raise money for each grade level to use to purchase items to enhance the education of our children (supplement allocated funds). We provided seed money for the staff charity Relay for Life of the American Cancer Society (a 501(c)(3) organization) to elevate social education and character among our students. We demonstrated our Appreciation to the Teachers and Staff of our school (encouraging cooperation between school and home) and to our youngsters attaining the milestones of graduating from Kindergarten and 5th grade (elevating the intellectual education and promoting the welfare of our students). (1000 students)	$4,400.00
