5-Second Discipline

Most parents don't want to be a nag or a drill sergeant, so they constantly ask their children to cooperate. It seems like a reasonable approach, especially since that's the way we talk to adults. Being polite in society requires making indirect requests, such as "Can you pass the salt?" So when you ask your child, "Would you like to take a bath now?" he may think you're offering an opportunity to say no – even though you really meant it as a polite way to make a direct command.

When you really need your child to do something, you could give her a choice about how or when it might be done, but not if it should be done. When you're giving your child instructions, be clear about what you want her to do. "Please clean up the crayons" is more effective than, "Didn't I ask you to clean up your crayons?" Rephrase your requests into statements and be sure to acknowledge your child's efforts by saying 'thank you'.

Every single item Claire's sales is incredibly fresh and scrumptious. The items will be available for pick-up on our Fall Conference Day when you will be at school for report card conferences. If you have never tried our Claire's Gourmet products, consider purchasing just one or two items to sample. You won't be disappointed.

We do not encourage children to sell door-to-door. We suggest they simply offer the catalog to family and friends. Out-of-town relatives may wish to go to the website and order items online.

Thank you for supporting our school with all that you do!

DID YOU KNOW?

- ❖ Parents/guardians may visit the classroom (including the playground) at the school's request or request to make a formal observation. Making an appointment with the school at least two school days in advance of an observation is not only a courtesy and a requirement by the Superintendent, but enables the parent/guardian to schedule the observation for the maximum benefit. Teachers cannot stop teaching to confer with the parents/guardians who stop by without an appointment. Parents/guardians may schedule up to two classroom observations of up to forty-five minutes in duration each grading period. Staff accompanies visitors to the classroom. Siblings should not attend. Teachers will be happy to discuss the observation at a mutually convenient time. Parents/guardians are welcome at any time to visit the cafeteria and eat lunch with their child.
- ❖ Absences from school are considered lawful only if they are accompanied by a medical note. This can be a doctor's note indicating an illness or a medical appointment. It would also be considered a medical absence if the school nurse sends a child home from school.
- ❖ School system policy states that students in elementary school with eight unlawful absences might be considered for retention.
- ❖ Regular, structured homework assignments are an extension of classroom instruction. Elementary students usually spend ten minutes on homework in first grade and up to an hour in fifth grade.
- ❖ Elementary school students may not possess cell phones at school.
- ❖ Valuable items (including games and toys) and large sums of money should not be brought to school. We do not take responsibility for valuables brought to school.
- ❖ Fifth graders choose their music class: band, chorus or orchestra. Fifth graders cannot change their musical preference during the year.
- ❖ The goal of Charles County Public Schools is to provide a quality educational program for all students in an environment that is conducive to learning. There are times, however, when an individual may have a concern. The first step in resolving a concern is to address it with the teacher or staff member who is most closely and directly involved. Please contact the school and schedule an appointment.
- ❖ Please remember that children under the age of 18 may not transport medication to and from school. Only adults may transport medication. This includes prescription medications, pain relievers (Advil/Tylenol), cough syrup, cough drops, and medicated lotions/creams. All medicated items must stay locked in our school Health Room.
