

Mr. Wright received his Bachelor of Science degree in Mass Communications and Public Relations in 1989 from Virginia Commonwealth University and his Master of Education in Special Education in 2008 from George Mason University. He is currently a candidate for Administration I certification from McDaniel College.

Mr. Wright coordinates the Hiatus program and is an Administrative Assistant at Smallwood. Prior to entering the teaching field, Mr. Wright was a newspaper reporter and editor, and served as a Public Relations Specialist for the Richmond Redevelopment and Housing Authority (RRHA). He worked for both public and private associations where he wrote speeches, congressional testimonials and ghost editorials for CEOs and corporate directors. He also served as the Associate Editor for The Association of Clinical Research Professionals (ACRP), where he launched the association's international newsletter. Mr. Wright began his teaching career in 2003 and has taught remedial, intermediate, and advanced writing classes. He edits and produces Smallwood's quarterly newsletter.

In his spare time, he writes and plays golf. He enjoys spending time with his family and his labrador retriever. He is also a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.
