

"AN ART FILLED YEAR FOR ONE OF STONE'S JUNIORS"

Cheyenne Adams-Brown

Title: Connections Acceptance

Cheyenne Adams-Brown recently submitted B&W photographs for the College of Southern Maryland's Connections Magazine contest. One of Cheyenne's B&W photographs, entitled "Cheyenne and Catherine" was selected by the College of Southern Maryland to appear in their spring 2008 issue of CONNECTIONS magazine. The first issues of the magazine will appear at the publication reading on Friday, May 2nd at CSM's Prince Frederick campus, which Cheyenne will be attending.

Title: Charles County Youth Art Month Exhibit, March 2008 Cheyenne Adams-Brown received Honorable Mention for her ceramic piece that was entered in the March 2008, Charles County Youth Art Month Exhibit. This exhibit is sponsored by the Charles County Public School and the Charles County Women's Club. The artwork was displayed at the Jessie L. Starkey Administration Building in La Plata.

Title: Charles County Fair

Cheyenne had a lot of success at this year's county fair. She won the "Youth Flower Award" for the Young Gardener's Flower Workshop, which is sponsored by the Federated Garden Club of Maryland. Her flower theme was "Witches Brew." With 4H, Cheyenne won Champion Ribbons for a "Personal Scrapbook of Europe", a "Holocaust Poster", a "Dried Flower Arrangement - 4th of July theme"; Reserve Champion Ribbon for a "Recycled item - a file box made from a cereal box"; Honorable Mention for "Painted Ceramic fairy", and 23 Blue Ribbons for miscellaneous artwork.

She also won 2nd place for her "2-D Pastel" in the Fair County School Building.
